GERMANS STILL FALLING BACK

British-French Offensive Movement Continues Unchecked.

LOSE IN THE CENTER.

Kaiser Hurling Enormous Reinforcement to Strengthen Present Line—Decisive Battle Imminent.

General Gallieni, military governor of Paris, announced today that the British-French offensive movement on the north continues unchecked. The Germans right wing continues to retreat in the face of a superior force, the French troops having been re-enforced from the army of defense of Paris. The Germans have gained in the center.

The military governor, however added nothing to the details made public at midnight at Bordeaux. His statement, issued at 10:30, was in effect a duplication of that declaration. It merely stated that the French and British are now well across the Marne and are pressing the retreating Germans hard, meanwhile taking many prisoners and guns.

German re-enforcements are are being hurled in enormous numbers to the center of the present battle line. Reports from the front emphasize that the critical position so far as the allies are concerned, is the territory in the vicinity between Camp de Mailly and Vitry-le-Francois, through Genicourt almost to Verdun.

Four persons were killed instantly and two others suffered injuries, which proved fatal soon afterward, when a Pennsylvania passenger train struck an automobile at Austin, Ind., near Scottsburg, yesterday. WEIRD PROPHECY.

Paris Newspaper Prints Utterance of Sixteenth Century Monk, And Applies it to Existing European Conflagration.

Paris, Sept. 11—The Figaro prints the commencement of a Latin prophecy dated in 1600. The author is not known. The monk Johannes has written the verses like a chapter of the Bible.

Verse 2 says: "It is true that anti-Christ will be a monarch, a son of Luther, invoking God and calling himself God's envoy."

Verse 4 says: "He will have only one arm, but innumerable armies whose device will be God with us."

Verse 5: "He will use craft and felony for a long time with spies throughout the world."

Verse 6: "He will have learned men in his pay proving his mission to be divine."

Verse 7: "War will provide an opportunity to raise the mask. It will not be a war against the French monarch, but another, which will be recognizable by becoming universal in a fortnight."

Verse 8: "All Christians and all Mussulmans, and even the most distant nations, will partake. Armies will be formed in the four corners of the world and eight angels will open men's eyes to understand by the third week that if they fight not anti-Christ all will become his slaves."

Verse 10: "Anti-Christ will be recognizable by his massacreing priests and monks and women and children, and aged persons. No mercy will be shown. He will pass torch in hand, like the barbarians but invoking Christ."

Verse 11: "His words will be Christ-like, but his acts Nerolike. His coat of arms will contain an eagle as also will the coat of arms of his acolyte, another evil monarch."

Verse 12: "The latter is a Christian and will die by the malediction of Pope Benedict, who will be elected at the commencement of Anti-Christ's reign."

Verse 13: "Priests will no longer confess and absolve the combatants, because the priests will be fighting in the ranks, and Benedict will curse anti-Christ, proclaiming all fighting against him to be in a state of grace ascending to heaven like the martyrs if killed."

Verse 14: "A papal bull proclaiming this will have a tremendous effect in rallying courage and the death of Anti-Christ and his ally."

Verse 16: "The conquest of Anti-Christ needs more men killed than Rome ever contained. All realms must participate for the cock, the leopard and the white eagle cannot exterminate the black eagle unless the prayers of the whole of humanity assist them."

Verse 16: "Humanity will never run such a danger, because the triumph of Anti-Christ would be equivalent to the triumph of the demon in whom he is incarnated."

Verse 17: "For twenty centuries after the incarnation of the Word it will have been prophesied that a beast would be incarnated, in turn threatening the earth with many evils and ills as the divine incarnation brought favors."

The Figaro adds: "The foregoing is only part of the prophecy, the remainder promising France and the world an era of peace after a terrible vengeance surpassing even French desires."

IRVINE HAS BRIGHT CHANCE

Governor Stuart Says he Has Good Crowds—Democrats Are United.

Richmond, Sept. 11.—R. Tate Irvine, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, has a fine chance for election this fall. This is the belief of Governor Henry C. Stuart, who has returned to the city from that section. The Governor made two speeches in behalf of Mr. Irvine, and he will make more when the campaign gets into full swing.

The Governor attended two meetings in company with Mr. Irvine—one at Jonesville, in Lee county, and one at Lebanon, in Russell county. There were very large crowds at each place. The Democrats appear to be united and very much in earnest. The Governor says that the speeches of Mr. Irvine are clear-cut and direct, and are well received by the voters.

RUSSIAN FORCES IN EAST PRUSSIA

Retiring on New Defensive Position in Face of Germans.

ARRIVAL OF 200,000

Austrian Officers of Three Battalions Flee From Field and Leave Men to Be Annihilated.

Petrograd, Sept. 11—The Russian forces in East Prussia are retiring on a new defensive position to meet an attack by a large German army which has just arrived from the west.

This force is reported here to be made up of several German army corps withdrawn from the French front and more than 200,000 members of the second line. They are heavily supported with artillery and it is believed here the great Eastern German fortresses have been denuded of their fighting forces to increase the forces in a general assault on the Russian columns.

The Russians are retiring slowly to positions previously selected and the war office states that a great battle is impending.

Rome, Sept 11—Mail advices from Trieste say that during the fighting in the vicinity of Lemberg, all the officers of three Austrian battalions fled, leaving their men to be annihilated by the fire of the Russian batteries. It is stated that only fifty men of these three battalions escaped.

GERMANS FORCED BACK

Invaders Suffer Severely During Battles of Past Few Days.

London, Sept. 11.—The crucial battle of the war in France has not yet reached any decisive result. Field Marshal Sir John French, commander of the British forces, reports that the Germans have been driven back all along the line, that the British had crossed the river Marne, driving the Germans back 37 miles; that the Germans had suffered severely, and that their men were supposed to be in a very exhausted condition.

London, Sept. 11.—(Ostend dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.)—According to information from a reliable source, the Belgian army at Antwerp has assumed a triumphant offensive movement, driving the Germans' right back to the environs of Louvain.

Rotterdam, Sept. 11., via London.—A dispatch to the Courant, dated Breda, Holland, reports that a heavy engagement took place Wednesday at Aerschot, Belgium, 9 miles northeast of Louvain, when the Belgians attacked the garrison there. As a result of the fighting, the Germans evacuated the town, and the Belgians hoisted their colors and liberated 26 priests found in a church.

Paris, Sept. 11.—There is no confirmation of the news published in the German newspapers of the fall of Maubeuge.

London, Sept. 11.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Petrograd says that the Austrians have begun evacuating Cracow. The dispatch says: "Consternation prevails at Cracow. The evacuation of the town has begun. The authorities are trying to induce the members of the local rifle club to remain and assist in the defense of the place. Many, however, have resigned their memberships because of sympathy with Russia. Others urged that it was useless to suffer the bombardment of Cracow when there was no chance for Austrian success."

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Rome says: "Dispatches from Vienna state that the advance guards of the Russian center ae marching toward Berlin. The Russian troops have invaded Silesia and the capture of Breslau is imminent."

London, Sept. 11.—Premier Asquith has asked Parliament to add another 500,000 men of all ranks to the regular army. After a short debate the premiers motion to increase the army by 500,000 was unanimously adopted.

London, Sept. 11.—A British warship has captured a German collier in the Atlantic Ocean. It stated that the collier had 5,000 tons of coal board.

New York, Sept. 11.—News from London that a British cruiser had captured a German collier upon the Atlantic Ocean gave rise to reports in many circles that the prize may have been the Kronprinz Wilhelm, of the Hamburg-American Line, which sailed from this port on August 3 heavily laden with coal. She has been repoted at various points, coaling German warships.

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 11.—A British cruiser is bringing to this port the Hambug-American liner Bethania, which had been converted into a German cruiser. The Bethania has 400 reservists on obard. There is great excitement in the city.

FINANCIERS FOR PEACE

Exerting Pressure in all European Capitals

Berlin, via Amsterdam, Sept. 11.—Financiers who control the money markets of the world are attempting to bring a speedy end to the European war. They are exerting pressure in all the capitals. Whether they will be successful is still problematical, but semi-official reports have been current here for two days that Germany would be willing to listen in the near future to proposals for mediation, provided her opponents would accept such proposals.

London, Sept. 11.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Petrograd says: "In Russian and foreign diplomatic circles it is believed that Austria will sue for peace within a fortnight as the only means of avoiding a complete break-up of the empire owing to rapidly growing internal troubles."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Baptist Church will hold a home-made cake and pie sale in the city market Saturday 11-1t.

AUSTRIA URGED TO SUE FOR PEACE

Dispatches From Vienna Report Bitter Feeling Against Germany.

MET RUSSIANS ALONE.

Troops of Francis Joseph Crushed by Overwhelming Numbers—Government Forced to Submit.

Vienna (via Rome), Sept 11—There is increasingly bitter feeling here against Germany and an almost universal demand in popular circles that the government sue for peace. The acknowledgment that the Austrian armies were compelled to meet the Russian assaults alone and unsupported while Germany invaded France, with the result that the Austrian army was crushed by overwhelming numbers has resulted in a storm of bitter criticism of the government.

The known losses are enormous and it is believed they have been far greater than the government will admit. So strong and bitter is the feeling that it is not believed the government can hold out much longer against it. Unless Austria sues for peace in the near future, it will be very hard for the government to prevent stormy scenes, not alone in Vienna, but in every big city in Austria-Hungary.

The admission is made that the railroads are unable to transport the wounded. The Austrian Red Cross last night issued a demand that all automobiles within the country be turned over to transport the wounded to places where they can be properly cared for. Every hospital in Vienna is filled with desperately injured soldiers. All public halls have been requisitioned and are also full. Private houses are now being utilized, and still the long trains of men torn by shot and shrapnel, continue to arrive here.

EMPEROR ESCAPES AVIATORS.

Franco-Belgians in Flight Over Luxemburg Attempt Destuction of Legation.

Berlin, via the Hague, Sept. 11—It was admitted today that the Kaiser and the general German staff have been in danger from a Belgian-French bomb attack by aviators.

They are directing the general campaign against France from the German legation in Luxemburg, capital of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg. This was known to the French and Belgians and a few nights ago, it is admitted, Belgian and French aviators flew over the city and attempted to drop bombs on the legation building. Four bombs fell near it but did no damage.

In order to forestall another attempt, searchlights have been mounted and aviators are constantly on watch.

The Kaiser is personally directing the general offensive movement against the French. Field telegraph lines have been constructed from the legation building in Luxemburg directly to the front. Occasionally the Kaiser and the general staff, in their automobiles, make personal examinations of the advanced positions, although the Emperor has not as yet gone to the actual firing line.

The situation in Berlin is unchanged. It is admitted in the official bulletins that the German right wing had been compelled to retire before a superior force of French and Engish. At all other points it is stated that the Gerlan attack continues with important successes.

INCREASED TRADE OF UNITED STATES

Latin-American Commerce Brings Relief Movement to Country.

HOLD A CONFERENCE.

Direct Exchange System is Recommended in Order to Extend Our Commerce to Southern Markets.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 11—Industrial and finacial problems in Latin-America, due to the war in Europe, have been outlined to representatives of United States banking and commercial interests, who immediately set on foot a relief movement. After members of the diplomatic and consular corps of the distressed countries had set forth their needs, the conference, organized under auspices of the Departments of State and Commerce authorized Secretary Redfield to name a committee to determine upon concrete recommendations and decide whether another general conference will be necessary.

New markets must be found for the products of the South American countries, the conference was told, and a system of exchange established that would produce revenues for crop moving and development purposes. The tremendous opportunity for the growth of American trade on the southern continent was urged as an incentive for immediate action.

Several Americans urged that American money be employed for the development of huge industrial enterprises, but representatives of the banking interests agreed that the problem at home would not permit of that at the present time.

It was urged that the European war had given the United States an opportunity to take over both the export and import business which formerly went abroad.

The conference committee will consist of representatives of the National Foreign Trade Council, already at work on the problem with a consular delegation in New York, and agents of American commercial organizations and the Pan-American Union.

Secretary Redfield assures the diplomats that American manufacturers and bankers would extend every possible feature of cooperation. He declares the main needs for developing commerce between the two continents consisted of a system of direct exchange, ready means of transportation and a thorough understanding. He suggested that the governments of South America would co-operate in the establishment of a direct exchange system.

STOLEN AUTOMOBILE

Thieves Sell Spare Tires in Washington And Leave Machine in Alexandria.

After stealing a seven passenger Cadillac automobile in Newark, N. J., selling the spare tires in Washington, and abandoning a young lad whom they had brought from Orange, N. J., as a guide, two well dressed men placed the stolen machine in a garage in Alexandria yesterday and skipped from the city. Although the police were notified within a few minutes after the men left the garage and all of the depots and boat wharves were watched the men got away before they could be apprehended.

Paul Sinkler, 17 years old, employed as a caddy at the Essex County Club, near Orange, came with the men from Orange. Yesterday afternoon he appeared at police station and informed Chief Goods that he thought that the machine which had just been stored at the Central Garage had been stolen. Chief Goods immediately started an investigation and found that the boy was correct in his surmise. He wired John J. Clary, chief of police of Newark, N. J., that the car, which bears a New Jersey license, No. 30,756, had been placed in a garage here. Last night he received a telegram from Chief Clary stating that the machine had been stolen from Newark. This morning he received a second message from M. T. Long, chief of police of Newark, stating that the machine had been stolen on Wednesday from its owner, L. Bamgerber.

According to Sinkler the two men passed him on the road near Orange on Wednesday night in the stolen machine. They asked him to direct them to Philadelphia, and after some time persuaded him to accompany them. They passed through Philadelphia and Baltimore without stopping and upon arrival at Washington sold two spare tires for $2.00. They came to Alexandria, where they told Sinkler they were going to sell the machine and would give him money to pay his railway fare back to his home.

Chief Goods kept men all night at the Central Garage waiting for the men to come back, but they did not appear.

BRITISH LION AROUSED.

Peace-loving England is in the war to stay, and those now presiding over her destinies have announced that no attention will be paid to plans for the cessation of hostilities until Germany is rendered hors de combat. The tail of the king of beasts has often been pulled during the past half a century, and those guilty of such acts of thoughtlessness have escaped the claws of the noble beast, but it is now making the forests ring, and the arrogant Germar eagle is fleeing before the aroused animal.

Little Belgium, shamefully treated by the German military colossus, is also very much alive, and Emperor William is finding to his sorrow that the worm has turned upon him. The Kaiser's soldiers are moving away from the determined defenders of homes and fireides. The discomfitted hordes are footsore and weary, and the cry, "On to Paris!" is not sending thrills through the invaders as it did a few weeks ago. It is possible that Berlin will be entered by the Russians before the Germans reach the confines of Paris. But the decisive battle has yet to be fought, with the advantages at present decidedly in favor of the allies.

Russia is virtually overrunning Austria, and there is reason to believe the latter country is on the point of throwing up the sponge in favor of the dual monarchy under reduction. The realm of Austria is in a terrible plight. The country is being ridden down by a powerful neighbor, and internal dissensions, famine and disease are adding to the woes.

Early [illegible] of striking blows for the French launch [illegible] are repulsing the British invasion of the young [illegible] of 1812-1814—the stars and stripes of the star-spangled banner are vividly recalled by the big [illegible] which is being held in Baltimore this week. Many Alexandrians have attended some of the events and joined with their friends and relatives in honoring the natal day of the American flag.

Last night's celebration was in the shape of a pageant in which 24 floats depicted the most important events in the history of Baltimore from 1814 to 1904. The floats followed by a division with a procession of banners representing the 18 states of the Union in 1814. As a tribute to Governor Stuart the banner of Virginia received long applause.

WEDDED IN THE SERE AND YELLOW LEAF.

James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, now in the septuagenarian age, has capitulated to hymen and taken unto himself a wife. He was married in Paris yesterday to Baroness De Reuter, and shortly after the solemnization of the nuptial rites the Episcopal minister who officiated at the wedding administered the rite of baptism.

Half a century ago Bennett, was entering the portals of early manhood ready to assume control of a lucrative business he had contributed but little toward founding. His sire, a Scotchman, who had been educated for the Catholic priesthood, had with great labor reached the top of the ladder and was owner of what was then regarded as the best paying newspaper property in the United States. The younger Bennett first began to keep the company of young women and a prominent belle at that time it was supposed would become his wife. The young man, however, manifested more interest in club life than domestic environments, and the Count of Mone Christo appealed more to him than a home and fireside presided over by a worthy consort. Petty misunderstandings terminated in serious ruptures between Bennett and the young woman, and the pleasures of the French capital enticed Bennett from the land of his birth. He took up his abode with the gay parisiennes and is still in their midst. The elder Bennett died in 1873, at which time his son became owner and manager of the Herald. He retained his headquarters in Paris and conducted the Herald from that city.

As time went on the members of family passed away, and, with his many millions, he found himself a stranger in a strange land and without a home—that is without the attention of a loving wife or children to soothe his declining years.

Fine hotels, clubs or luxurious yachts could not bring this domestic bliss, and Bennett recently, while on one of his cruises, became seriously ill in the land of the Pharoahs. With all the attention his money could procure, there were no gentle touches of a wife, sons or daughters, and the self-expatriated American, sought a consort for the advanced evening of life.

The rearing of a family is accompanied at times by anxieties and often sorrows, but there is another side not seen by the young and thoughtless who repudiate the responsibilities of life. Should they live to be old a time will come when they will realize that the humble cotter, watched over by an anxious wife and children is enjoying blessings which are denied the old and opulent who have no one to manifest interest in them when the dismal days draw nigh.

Miss Elizabeth Kane, of Portageville, N. Y., is visiting her cousin, Miss Pauine Dolan, on north Washington street.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME.

Second of Series Between Cardinals And Athletics to be Played Sunday Afternoon.

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team and the White Sox nine will play the second game of the series for the championship of Alexandria next Sunday on the diamond near the Lighthouse.

The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

Captain Maxie Hicks will probably use for his battery Nalls and Hantzman, with Wood and Smoot in reserve.

The Cardinals have not yet selected their twirler for this contest, but will pick their choice from Risdon, Trenary, Allensworth, Thompson, Padgett, or Woodyard, after their warm-up Sunday, when the lad showing the best skill will face the hard hitting rivals for the pennant.

Captain Devers will work his regular infield—Merchant, first base. Nugent, second base; Allensworth or Snowden, third base; and Devers, short stop.

The catchers, McBride, Jones, Sillex, Patterson, and the all-around man, "Bird" Trenary, will be on hand to perform behind the bat in case of emergency.

The outfield will be selected from Joe Owens, Bauer, Lynn, Walker, Snowden, Allensworth, and Mississippi.

The White Sox put up a rattling good game last Sunday against the Cardinas and they deserve praise for the game fight they made to overcome the lead the present champions had over them. The playing of Peverill on the first sack was the best feature for the Sox, that "tall boy" reached the hard throws in clock-like time.

The next game should be a good one, and as neither team desire any favors from the umpires, but want to win on their merits.

Figures from the official records in the State Auditor's office. Show that during the last ten years the criminal expenses in Virginia have averaged in round numbers, $320,000.

They show that the income of the State from all sources is about $4,200,000 a year, and that the last Legislature not only appropriated for the next two years an amount equal to the income of the State, but enough more to considerably decrease the surplus which was in the treasury when the Legislature met

This surplus amounted to $333,824.54.

The figures show that included in the $4.200,000 annual income of the State is about $600,000 which is annually received in liquor license taxes and taxes upon property used in the legitimate liquor business.

In 1913 the State received in liquor taxes $532.431.27 About $70,000 was received in taxes on property used in the liquor business. making the total of about $600,000.

Of course, this $600,000 will be lost if Statewide prohibition prevails. This will mean, in the present financial condition of the State, that there will be a serious deficit in the treasury every year

Prohibitionists contend that a remarkable decrease in criminal expenses will result from prohibition.

Statistics are not available showing the relation of whiskey and crime, and the criminal expenses in States which have tried prohibition have not shown a constant decrease, but even if criminal expenses in Virginia do decrease—even if they are wiped out altogether, which, of course, is an absurdity—there will still be an annual deficit in the treasury of more than $250,000.

The cost of convicting a drunkard and those guilty of minor offenses is slight. The State has spent tens of thousands of dollars in the last ten years in prosecuting important trials. Some of these may be named:

The McCue case, the Strother-By-waters case, the Loving-Estes case, the Beattie case, the Allen cases and recently the Hall case.

Not one of these cases resulted from the sale or use of whiskey. The trials would have taken place just as they did if there had been no saloons in the world and if whiskey had never been made.

The history of criminology shows that most of those who commit serious offenses are not addicted to the use of alcohol and that the crimes were not committed under the influence of whiskey or any alcoholic beverage. Great criminals, those which it costs thousands of dollars to arrest and convict, have been notoriously temperate.

W. H. UNDERWOOD DEAD.

The funeral will be held from the residence Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

HON. R. WALTON MOORE ON PROHIBITION.

I am certain that our normal increase in property holdings and values insure against the possibility of taxes being raised.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly," writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.
